Effective Communication

- Just because you believe you are communicating ideas and information properly does not necessarily mean it is effective.
- In order for communication to be effective the message has to be received correctly as well.
- Effective communication is proactive, polite, imaginative, innovative, creative, constructive, professional, progressive, energetic, enabling, transparent and technology friendly.

What is Communication?

Definitions:

- A process by which information is exchanged between individuals through a common system of symbols, signs, or behavior.
- Communication is the sum of all the things one person does when he wants to create understanding in the mind of another. It involves a systematic and continuous process of telling, listening and understanding. -Louis A Allen
- The imparting or interchange of thoughts, opinions, or information by speech, writing, or signs.
- The way we communicate with others and with ourselves ultimately determines the quality of our lives. -Tony Robbins
